Robbery

The robbery was discovered at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, November 12. The bank had closed at 5 p.m. the previous day.	Dirsey Flowers was carrying $500 when police apprehended him and had thrown a package into the river as the police approached.
Miss Ellington stated that her brother Howard, when strolling to Taylor's Diner for coffee about 11:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 11, had seen Mr. Smith running from the bank.	The president of the bank, Mr. Albert Greenbags left before the robbery was discovered. He was arrested by authorities at the Mexico City airport at noon on Friday, November 12.
Mr. Greenbags was the only person who had a key to the vault.	The front door of the bank had been open with a key.
Mr. Greenbag's half-brother, Arthur Nodough, had always been jealous of his brother.	A strange, hippie-type person had been hanging around the bank on Thursday, November 11, watching employees and customers.
Anastasia Wallflower of East Birdwatch, Wisconsin, said that she had brought $500 worth of genuine Indian love beads from Dirsey Flowers for resale in her boutique in downtown East Birdwatch.	An acme employee, Howard Ellington, said that a hippie had been hanging around the construction company on Wednesday afternoon.
A substantial amount of dynamite had been stolen from the Acme Construction Company on Wednesday, November 10.	Miss Margaret Ellington, a teller of the bank, discovered the robbery.
The airline clerk confirmed the time of Smith's arrival.	The vault of the bank had been blasted open by dynamite.
Arthur Nodough appeared in Chicago on Monday, November 8, waving a lot of money.	When police tried to locate the janitor of the bank, Elwood Smith, he had apparently disappeared.
Mr. Smith was found by the F.B.I. in Dogwalk, Georgia, on November 12. He had arrived there via Southern Airlines Flight 414 at 5:00 p.m. on the 11 th .	Anastasia said that Dirsey had spent the night of November 11 th at the home of her parents and left after a pleasant breakfast on the morning of the 12 th .
In addition to keeping payroll records, Mr. Ellington was in charge of the dynamite supplies of the Acme Construction Company.	The president of the bank had been having trouble with his wife, who spent all of his money. He had frequently talked of leaving her.
There were no planes out of Dogwalk between 4:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m.	The only keys to the bank were held by the janitor and the president of the bank.
Miss Ellington said that Smith had often flirted with her.	Mr. Smith's father, a gold prospector in Alaska, had died in September.
Miss Ellington often borrowed the president's key to open the bank early when she had an extra amount of work to do.	Mr. Greenbags waited in the terminal at O'Hare Field in Chicago for 16 hours because of engine trouble on the plane he was to take to Mexico City.
The hippie type-type character, whose name was Dirsey Flowers and who had recently dropped out of Southwest Arkansas State Teachers College, was found by police in East Birdwatch, about ten miles from Minnetonka.
